USE OF PROCEEDS

Our offering is being made on a self-underwritten basis: no/

9,000,000 common shares are issued and outstanding as of the date of this prospectus. The company is registering an additional 3,000,000 shares of its common stock for possible resale at the price of $0.01 per share.

Hidden Ladder will receive all proceeds from the sale of the shares by the company. The price per share is $0.01. However, Hidden Ladder common stock may never be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board or listed on any exchange.

The company's shares may be sold to purchasers from time to time directly by, and subject to, the discretion of the company. Further, the company will not offer their shares for sale through underwriters, dealers, or agents or anyone who may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions from the company and/or the purchasers of the shares for whom they may act as agents. The shares sold by the company may be sold occasionally in one or more transactions at a fixed price of $0.01 per share.

The shares may not be offered or sold in certain jurisdictions unless they are registered or otherwise comply with the applicable securities laws of such jurisdictions by exemption, qualification or otherwise. We intend to sell the shares only in the states in which this offering has been qualified or an exemption from the registration requirements is available, and purchases of shares may be made only in those states.

In addition and without limiting the foregoing, the company will be subject to applicable provisions, rules and regulations under the Exchange Act with regard to security transactions during the period of time when this Registration Statement is effective.

Hidden Ladder will pay all expenses incidental to the registration of the shares (including registration pursuant to the securities laws of certain states).

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We are not a party to any material legal proceedings and to our knowledge; no such proceedings are threatened or contemplated by us or to any of our subsidiaries.

Company believes this event is the most critical to our success. The Company estimates that it will take up to six months after this registration statement becomes effective and the costs will be similar to this offering, however the Company is uncertain on the timeframe for raising the follow on capital to complete the business and marketing plan.

There are two major parts to the business and marketing plan, the product development strategy and marketing strategy. The company plans on using consultants and contractors to develop both strategies, estimated to be completed in two months, and will cost approximately $20,000. The product development strategy costs consists of two resources, one product design and the other a manufacturing expert. The marketing strategy will require one resource. The Company will not commence any product development and prototypes until the business and marketing plans are completed.

After the business and marketing plans are completed, Company intends to hire independent consultants, and contractors to develop the product prototypes. The Company believes finding experienced consultants in the home building and improvement industry is critical to ensure the success of the Company's development plans. The Company expects to complete the product development and prototypes within twenty four (24) months from this offering.

Hidden Ladder has incurred a loss of $937 for the period ending May 31, 2010 and total loss of $4,537 since inception. The Company has not generated any revenue from business operations. All proceeds currently held by the company are the result of the sale of common stock.

assets, including tax loss and credit carryforwards, and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Deferred income tax expense represents the change during the period in the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities. The components of the deferred tax assets and liabilities are individually classified as current and non-current based on their characteristics. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. No deferred tax assets or liabilities were recognized as of May 31, 2010.

Advertising

The Company has not adopted the provisions of the accounting standard for advertising costs. The Company's policy is to expense advertising costs as incurred. The Company's advertising expense for the period ending May 31, 2010 was $0.00.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(MAY 31, 2010)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue and Cost Recognition

The Company has no current source of revenue; therefore the Company has not yet adopted any policy regarding the recognition of revenue or cost.

Property

The company does not own any real estate or other properties. The company's office is located 2803 Isle Street, Rocklin CA 95765. Our contact number is 530-409-0453. The business office is located at the home of David Johnson, the CEO of the company at no charge to the company.

Income Taxes

The Company adopted FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, at its inception deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets, including tax loss and credit carryforwards, and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Deferred income tax expense represents the not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. In the Company's opinion, it is uncertain whether they will generate sufficient taxable income in the future to fully utilize the net deferred tax asset. Details for the last three years follow

NOTE 4. STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY

Common Stock

On February 23, 2010, the Company issued 9,000,000 of its $0.0001 par value common stock for $9,000 cash to the founder of the Company. The issuance of the shares was made to the sole officer and director of the Company and an individual who is a sophisticated and accredited investor, therefore, the issuance was exempt from registration of the Securities Act of 1933 by reason of Section 4 (2) of that Act.

There are 300,000,000 Common Shares at $0.0001 par value Authorized with 9,000,000 Issued and Outstanding as of February 28, 2010.

NOTE 5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The officer and director of the Company are involved in other business activities and may, in the future, become involved in other business opportunities that become available. They may face a conflict in selecting between the Company and other business interests. The Company has not formulated a policy for the resolution of such conflicts.

NOTE 6. GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. For the period February 23, 2010 (date of inception) through February 28, 2010 the Company has had a net loss of $3,600. As of February 28, 2010, the Company has not emerged from the development stage. In view of these matters, recoverability of any asset amounts shown in the accompanying financial statements is dependent upon the Company's ability to begin operations and to achieve a level of profitability. Since inception, the Company has financed its activities principally from the sale of equity securities. The Company intends on financing its future development activities and its working capital needs largely from loans and the sale of public equity securities with some additional funding from other traditional financing sources, including term notes, until such time that funds provided by operations are sufficient to fund working capital requirements.
